

Steps to the Voting Booth on October 18, 2010

This is a general outline.

Please consult the Local Authorities Election Act and the School Act for all information.

Who can run as a Catholic trustee?

Candidates

- must be eligible to vote in the election
- must be a resident of the local jurisdiction and the ward, if outside a city, for the six consecutive months immediately preceding nomination day
- not otherwise ineligible or disqualified (as outlined in Sections 22 to 24 of the Local Authorities Election Act)

Election Day: October 18, 2010
Head to the voting booth!

- Who is eligible to vote?
- you must be at least 18 years old
- you must be a Canadian citizen
- you must be a resident of Alberta for the six consecutive months immediately preceding election day
- you must be a resident in the area on election day

After deciding to run as a Catholic trustee

You must file your nomination papers.

Nomination papers are due: September 10, 2010 between 10 am and 12pm.

Please confirm this information with your local school board office as local authorities may set different dates and times..

Also consult them for the number of signatures needed on your nomination papers.

Campaigning

Now is your chance to get your ideas heard and have valuable conversations with people about Catholic education.

A note on Residency and Faith:

Where a separate school district is established, an individual residing within the boundaries of the separate school district who is of the same faith as those who established that district, whether Protestant or Roman Catholic.

- a) is a resident of the separate school district, and
- b) is not a resident of the public school district.

In these sections, Roman Catholic includes all members of the Roman Catholic Church and all of the Eastern Catholic churches which recognize the Pope as the head of the Church.

Are you passionate about Catholic education?

Do you feel a calling to ensure that Catholic schools remain a part of Alberta's publicly-funded education system?

Does living a life rooted in faith, while informing political decisions, excite you?

Do you have ideas for change in education?

Do you want to be a leader in your faith community?

Consider running as a Catholic school trustee and keeping our Catholic schools special and unique

Your local board is:

For more information on Catholic schools in Alberta and the Northwest Territories, please contact the Alberta Catholic School Trustees' Association or your local Catholic school board.

325 - 9940 106 St
Edmonton, AB
T5K 2N2

Tel: (780)484-6209
Fax: (780)484-6248
Email: admin@acsta.ab.ca
Web: www.acsta.ab.ca

April 2010

Answering the Call

Become a Catholic School Trustee

On October 18, 2010
be part of the action

